

iControl Wrappers JavaDoc available.

Don MacVittie, 2008-26-02

If you're a registered user of DevCentral (everyone is, right?), the JavaDoc for the current version of the wrappers is available for download in the Java Lab area.

It's not Big, Bladed, and Beautiful, but it might help you get your job done.

Sorry for the delay in getting these out, they've been finished up for a while, I just didn't get them posted.

The zip file includes documentation from the iControlIntermediary package on down. It does not document the iControl API, it is very well documented elsewhere - primarily on the iControl Wiki.
