

Interop 2012

Peter Silva, 2012-02-05

Next week is Interop and we are gearing up for a great week in Vegas. They expect anywhere from 10,000 to 13,000 attendees and you can find F5 in Booth 2137. Don't worry, I'll be doing my usual round of videos including the now standard, how to find F5. Check out the F5News blog F5 Interopportunities at Interop 2012 and the press release F5 Secures and Optimizes Application and Network Services for the Interop 2012 Las Vegas Network Operations Center to see what's planned for this year. If you can't make it to the show and are interested in what's happening, check back here and you can watch some of the day's events every evening. In the meantime, you can catch up on what we were doing last year.
