

Radio Killed the Privacy Star

Peter Silva, 2011-04-02

---

With apologies to The Buggles and the 12 other bands that have covered this song:

*RFID out there is always watching you,
Staying awake intent at tuning in on you.
When I was young I never thought it would come true.*

Oh-a-oh

*They put a chip on things and never let you be.
Your data gathered up with new technology,
Yes, there's Security but problems we can see.*

Oh-a-oh

*They track your movement.
Oh-a-oh*

What did you show them?

*Radio killed the privacy star.
Radio killed the privacy star.*

*Sensors can even smell your farts.
Oh-a-a-a-oh*

*And now we meet with our Bluetooth headset's glow,
See toll booth baskets and it seems so long ago,
And you remember when networks were so slow.*

Oh-a-oh

*This ain't the first one.
Oh-a-oh*

Won't be the last one.

*Radio killed the privacy star.
Radio killed the privacy star.*

*In my mind and in my car, we can't escape we've gone too far.
Oh-a-aho-oh,
Oh-a-aho, oh.*

*Radio killed the privacy star.
Radio killed the privacy star.*

*In my mind and in my car, we can't escape we've gone too far.
Sensors can even smell your farts, put the blame on Tesla.*

*You were a privacy star.
You were a privacy star.
Radio killed the privacy star.
Radio killed the privacy star.*

(fade)
